

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1 To commemorate Black History Month, read books that celebrate the accomplishments of Black history makers. Here are a few of our favorite books.	2 It is National Groundhog Day. Did the groundhog see their shadow?	3 Make a winter bookmark by drawing pictures of what winter means to you!
4 It's National Thank A Mail Carrier Day. Thank your mail person/letter carrier. Write a thank you note for your mail person.	5 Today is Meteorologist Day! Look at the weather outside and talk about different weather words.	6 Help your child create valentines for family members and friends.	7 Ask your child to help you write a grocery list.	8 Encourage your child to tell a story using a puppet.	9 Ride and read. Keep familiar children's picture books in the car for your child to look at and tell the stories in their own way.	10 Read a recipe and bake together.
11 Write the word "red" on a several sticky notes. Have your child go on a "red scavenger hunt" around the house, putting the notes on anything red.	12 Children love to pretend. At mealtime, let your child pretend to be a waiter or waitress. Give your child a pad of paper and pencil to take your order.	13 Read signs as you drive home from New Horizon Academy. Try finding signs that are familiar and see if your child can figure out what the sign means.	14 Read valentines your child received. 	15 Together, make a list of things you can do outside. Take the list when you go outside and check things off one by one.	16 Read your child some of their favorite stories, and then have them draw pictures about what happened.	17 In honor of Random Acts of Kindness Day, leave your child sweet notes and help him write his own.
18 Make a reading fort using blankets and pillows. Read together inside the fort using a flashlight.	19 At breakfast, read the cereal box together.	20 Mealtime is a great time for children to learn about group conversations. Ask your child a question about their day.	21 Listen to an audio book as you drive home from New Horizon Academy.	22 Recite your favorite nurse rhymes.	23 Take turns telling stories about what animals do in the winter. Where do they live? What do they eat? Be creative!	24 Have a pajama day! Spend the day in your jammies and read a good book.
25 Head outside for a winter nature walk. Use our Winter Nature Walk Scavenger Hunt for extra fun on your nature walk.	26 Tell a Fairy Tale Day. Read your favorite fairy tale. Why is it your favorite?	27 Have your child tell their own version of a favorite story.	28 Curl up with your child, a blanket, and a good book and nod off after reading together.	29 Make a list of all the books you read this month. Which book was your favorite? Why?
